Photographers

As a probationary Guild member you are also eligible to apply to join the Professional Garden Photographers' Association (PGPA), a semi-autonomous group within the Guild servicing the interests of garden photographers, which has its own committee, for an additional annual fee of £25. Please fill out the separate PGPA membership form; this is available from: www.gardenmediaguild.co.uk/membership/joinforms.html

Data Protection

Subject to your applicant being accepted, please answer the following questions relating to Data Protection:

* Are you willing to allow us to publish your personal details, including contact details, on our website www.gardenmediaguild.co.uk and in GMG News, the Guild's quarterly magazine? YES/NO ***
The website obviously has full public access. GMG News is distributed to other Guild members, and can be sold or provided to non-members and organisations at the Guild's discretion in furtherance of extending the Guild and its members' presence and significance in the garden media world.

* Are you willing to allow us to publish your membership details to others, both members and non-members, via the Guild's public Twitter and Facebook accounts? YES/NO ***

* Are you willing to be added to our e-mail contact list? YES/NO ***

(* Please delete as appropriate)

The Guild takes your privacy seriously and we will only use your personal information to administer your account and provide the services you have requested from us. The Guild's revised Privacy Policy is available from the Guild's website. We need your personal data to provide our services, which are an essential benefit of membership. We cannot process anyone's membership without this information.

However, the Guild operates its services through an administration company called AMS, based in Ross-on-Wye. AMS therefore holds the personal information provided by you when you join the Guild or when you subsequently update that information. Under the new General Data Protection Act 2018, we need your consent for us to pass on your information to AMS so that they can continue to administer the Guild's affairs.

By signing this form, you are agreeing to this provision.
